

Provider Information Sessions: NC Child Welfare Trauma-Informed Assessment

Help shape the future of trauma-informed care in North Carolina! The North Carolina Child Welfare Trauma-Informed Assessment (NC CWTIA) will bring standardized, trauma-focused assessments to child welfare. Attend one of the sessions to learn how your agency can apply to participate as an approved provider.

What You Will Learn

Overview of the NC Child Welfare Trauma Informed Assessment

Provider Application Process and Eligibility Criteria

Training & Fidelity Requirements

Timeline & Next Steps

Q&A Discussion & Next Steps

Who Should Attend

- Behavioral health providers interested in providing the NC CWTIA
- Clinical directors & program managers
- Agencies committed to a trauma-informed child welfare system

Click below to register now!

January 21st 11a-12:30p

January 27th 3:30p-5p

January 29th 9a-10:30a

Questions may be directed to Kristin Reed at kreed@benchmarksnc.org

Become a NC Child Welfare Trauma-Informed Assessment Provider

Provider Information Sessions

Why This Matters

To improve outcomes for children and families, North Carolina Department of Health & Human Services Division of Social Services is launching a standardized, trauma-informed assessment process that bridges behavioral health and child welfare.

What You Will Learn

Purpose & Vision

How NC CWTIA supports children, families, and county DSS partners

Program Overview

How the NC CWTIA can improve outcomes

Becoming a Provider

Application process, eligibility criteria, and selection timeline

Training & Fidelity Requirements

Proficiency requirements, training and fidelity expectations

Collaboration in Action

Hear from Health Plans on coordination and care alignment

Q&A Discussion

Together, we're building a trauma-informed system of care—one assessment at a time.

Who Should Attend

- Behavioral health providers interested in providing the NC CWTIA
- Clinical directors & program managers
- Agencies committed to a trauma-informed child welfare system

Virtual Session Details

Click below to register now!

January 21st
11a-12:30p

January 27th
3:30p-5p

January 29th
9a-10:30a

Questions may be directed to Kristin Reed
kreed@benchmarksnc.org